Community Kitchen During the COVID-19 Lockdown

During the nationwide COVID-19 lockdown, the parent organization of the Trust, Akhila Bharatha Ayyappa Seva Sangham, (ABASS), Bhopal, established a Community Kitchen at Bairagarh, (Bhopal) to provide humanitarian assistance to those severely affected by the crisis.

From 24th March 2020 to 2nd June 2020 (70 days), the Community Kitchen prepared and distributed approximately 2,000 to 2,500 freshly packed meals every day to slum residents, underprivileged daily wage labourers, migrant workers undertaking long journeys on foot (padayatra), and railway passengers affected by the crisis. The food distribution was carried out in close coordination with the Bhopal Municipal Corporation under the leadership of Shri Krishna Mohan Soni, Former MIC Member and Councillor, Ward No. 2. In recognition of the humanitarian and community service initiatives, ABASS, Bhopal, received a Certificate of Appreciation from the Government of Madhya Pradesh for its dedicated efforts.

Inspired by the invaluable experience gained during the successful operation of the Community Kitchen, and following the establishment of the Akhila Bharatha Ayyappa Seva Bhopal Charitable Trust in 2021, the Trustees—Shri Kaladharan Panchana, Shri P. Anil Kumar Nair, Shri T. G. Anil Kumar, and CA M. N. G. Pillai—who had actively participated in the Community Kitchen operations both on the ground and in the back office, ensuring effective planning, coordination, logistics, and the smooth functioning of the 70-day relief mission, conceived and launched the “Hunger Free Mission” under the banner of the Trust.

The Hunger Free Mission is a natural extension of the Trust's commitment to serving the underprivileged by providing free, nutritious meals to poor and needy individuals with dignity, compassion, and sustained community participation.

Service to mankind is service to God

Free Food for poor and needy

Launch of “Hunger Free Mission”

Akhila Bharatha Ayyappa Seva Bhopal Charitable Trust is pleased to announce the launch of its flagship charitable initiative, titled “HUNGER FREE MISSION (HFM)”, with effect from 23rd January 2026.

Annadana Seva—the offering of food to the needy—is revered as the highest form of charity and is profoundly dear to Lord Ayyappan (Annadhana Prabhu). This sacred principle forms the spiritual foundation of the “Hunger Free Mission.”

Under this Mission, freshly prepared and hygienically packaged food will be distributed to the poor and needy, especially hospital bystanders, slum and hutment dwellers, and other needy sections of the society. The programme will be implemented under the close supervision of a nominated committee of the Trust, ensuring transparency, quality, and dignity in service.

All blessed members, devotees, and well-wishers are warmly invited to participate in this Noble Mission by booking and sponsoring food packets on special occasions such as, birthdays, wedding anniversaries, memorial or remembrance days of loved ones, or any other auspicious occasion.

For booking, donation, subscription and for further details, kindly contact any of the following office bearers of the Trust :

Appeal for CSR Partnership

The Hunger Free Mission of Akhila Bharatha Ayyappa Seva Bhopal Charitable Trust is a sincere and sustained effort to ensure that no vulnerable person goes hungry. What began as a humanitarian response during the COVID-19 pandemic has evolved into an ongoing mission dedicated to serving poor and needy individuals with dignity, compassion, and care.

While the Trust continues to mobilize resources through contributions from members, philanthropists, and well-wishers, the growing demand for the programme calls for greater institutional support. Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) partnerships can play a vital role in strengthening and expanding the Mission, enabling the Trust to reach a larger number of beneficiaries, improve the quality and nutritional value of the meals, enhance food preparation and distribution infrastructure, and ensure the long-term sustainability of the initiative.

We warmly invite industries, corporate organizations, business houses, public sector undertakings, and CSR foundations to partner with us in this noble humanitarian endeavour. Your CSR support will directly contribute to providing wholesome meals to poor and needy people, thereby promoting food security, human dignity, and social well-being.

The Trust is registered under the relevant statutory provisions and holds 12AB Registration, 80G Certification, PAN, and NITI Aayog DARPAN Registration, making it eligible to receive CSR support in accordance with applicable laws and corporate policies.

Together, we can make a meaningful difference in the lives of thousands of people. We invite you to join hands with us in strengthening the Hunger Free Mission and creating a society where no one is deprived of a meal due to poverty.

"A shared meal nourishes not only the body but also hope, dignity, and humanity."

We look forward to partnering with your esteemed organization in this mission of compassion and service.
